Confession Responsive:

God of grace, we confess that our parenting is rarely perfect, our patience is often short, and we sometimes look at our children and wonder who let them be the adults in charge. We confess we have tested the patience of our earthly fathers and given them more than a few gray hairs along the way, but we can never exhaust the patience of our heavenly Father. We come to you as imperfect parents and children, fully aware of our daily mistakes and shortcomings. We thank You that Your love is infinitely better than our best "dad jokes"—it never fails, it never grows old, and it welcomes us home exactly as we are. We rejoice that we can never exhaust Your divine patience. We are forgiven, restored, and free.

Assurance Of Pardon:

Thanks be to God! Alleluia! Amen.
