

Sermon Notes: June 15, 2025 Encounters with the Risen Christ:
John Meets Jesus– John 20:1-10

We're looking at all the appearances Jesus made after he was risen from the dead, the people he saw, the people he met, after he was risen from the dead.

John is saying, "You can never know the Jesus of before the resurrection. You can never know what we knew, and that is the Jesus of chapters 1–19; but the Jesus of chapter of 20, the Jesus of chapter 21, the Jesus after the resurrection, you can know just like us."

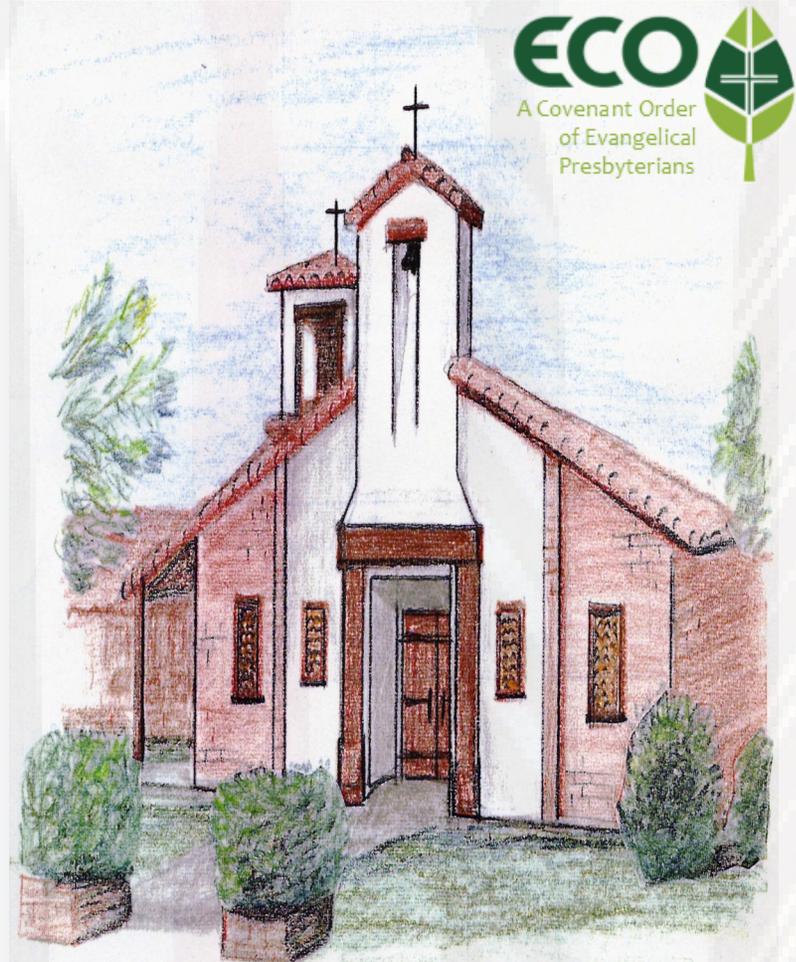

Now, the whole issue is what is belief? What is this faith? In the book of John, in the Bible, but in particular in the gospel of John, there is a key; it's belief, believing, faith.

This passage tells us this saving faith, not faith in general, is impossible, it's rational, it's personal, it's individual, and it's radical. Every couple of verses gives us one of those principles. Look with me.

1. First, verses 1–3 tell us the kind of faith we must have in order to unite with Jesus is impossible.

2. Secondly, we're told here faith is rational.

3. Thirdly, faith is personal

Prayer of Confession:

Gracious and Loving God, our hearts are wandering and distracted. You invite us to serve and love You now, but we refuse because we have places to be and things to do. Our excuses blind us to Your call. The urgent and temporary crowd out what You consider truly important and eternal. Forgive our lack of conviction, discernment, and purpose. Restore to us the joy of serving and loving You. May our lives give You glory and honor. We pray through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Assurance of Pardon:

Thanks be to God! Alleluia! Amen.
